

Yes, even though you made a payment on-line, you still need a clearance from our office. Please call after you have received your confirmation and we will clear you electronically on the DMV website.